

6516209690.txt

Please don't cut back competition by restricting satellite radio companies from broadcasting locally-focussed programs. Listeners need more, not fewer, choices, including the choice to pay for commercial-free programming. It would be ironic for the FCC to penalize people who make this choice by forbidding localized content. Thank you.